To the church at Woodstock,

The family of Mrs. Jewell Tucker wishes to extend our sincere gratitude for the care and compassion you have shown our mother. We especially want to thank you for the spiritual care you have provided without measure. God will bless you for your good works and love.

Written on the behalf of Mrs. Jewell Tucker

To Woodstock Church of Christ,

Thank you for providing us a time and place to remember, share memories with you and people from so many other congregations, and celebrate our father. Thank you for your loving embrace. Thank you for hugging us, crying with us, laughing with us, feeding us. Your care means more than you will ever know. And there is no doubt Johnny would offer his eternal gratitude for what you have done for his loved ones. Thank you for loving our father. He certainly loved all of you at Woodstock.

God Bless you all,

The Mackey family: Jane, Debbie, Teresa, Shane, Joshua, Ginger, Haisten, Hazel-Jane, and Griffin

Your Help is Needed

We need volunteers to help keep our kitchen clean. We have a lot of fellowships and functions that require the use of the kitchen. Please help by signing up to help with deep cleaning and or maintaining on the WINGS bulletin board. Please see Barbara Murphy for questions.

Woodstock Church of Christ Weekly Bulletin

Welcome to the Lord's church that meets at Woodstock, Georgia. We find our authority in the inspired word of God and are governed in organization, faith, worship, and work according to God's Holy Word.

Vol. 25 No. 3 MAKE A COMMITMENT TO READ THE BIBLE IN 2017! January 15, 2017

After 30 years as a preacher of God's Word, a New Jersey minister concluded, "The Bible is the best-selling, least-read, and least-understood book in the world." In his view and experience, "Biblical illiteracy is rampant."

George Gallup, the foremost religion pollster in the United States, agrees with this preacher. "We revere the Bible," he says, "but we don't read it." In a recent survey, 64 percent of those questioned said they were "too busy" to read the Bible. The average household has three Bibles but less than half the people in the United States can name the first book in the Old Testament. One survey found that 12 percent of its Christian respondents identified Noah's wife as "Joan of Arc!"

The solution to Biblical illiteracy? Read the Bible! Won't you please make a commitment to read the Bible on a daily basis (Acts 17:11)?

It will take about 15 minutes a day to follow a daily reading regimen of God's Word. Are we too "busy" to take this small amount of our time each day to "grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ" (2 Peter 3:18)?

The goal of our reading the Bible is not merely "information," but "transformation" (Romans 12:2). Someone once summarized 2 Timothy 3:1 by saying, "God's Word shows us 'which' road to take (doctrine). It tells us 'when' we get off track (reproof); 'how' to get back on track (correction); and 'how' to stay on track (instruction in righteousness)."

In 2 Timothy 2:15 the Apostle Paul by inspiration penned these words:

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." (KJV)

During this New Year, let us heed the above words of the inspired apostle and be found "diligently" reading and studying God's inspired word. We'll be glad we did!
