Missions

God's Blessing Bags

The Blessing Bags are ready! Please take what you can give away.

Matt, Dave, Kathy, & Reg will return February 9. Please pray for a fruitful and safe journey.

Our deepest sympathy to Rick & Tammy Langosch and family. Tammy's father, Leroy Olson, passed away last week. The funeral was Thursday in Frankfort, IL.

Dear church family,

A heart felt "thank you" for all the prayers, cards and love shown to us during this time. The passing of our granddaughter was so sudden and a shock to all who knew her. Love in Christ, John and Rosie Hicks

Woodstock Church of Christ,

Thank you so much for the thoughtful gift of money you gave us. We appreciate it so much, and also appreciate all the love and prayers on behalf of our family. Thank you from the bottom of our heart.

Price & Beth White (parents of Natalie Vitrano)

Dear church family,

Thank you for all the concern, cards, and prayers after my seizure. All the tests have been good. In Christ, Marcy Cox

Congratulations

Barbara Murphy is proud to announce the birth of her great-grandson, Jackson (8lbs, 20 in). Parents are Allie & Connor Aaron.

Woodstock Church of Christ Weekly Bulletin

Welcome to the Lord's church that meets at Woodstock, Georgia. We find our authority in the inspired word of God and are governed in organization, faith, worship, and work according to God's Holy Word.

Vol. 25 No. 4 WHAT IS A PREACHER? January 22, 2017

Somewhere, between the call of God and the heart of the hospital, there exists a specialist in everything and variously called preacher or minister.

He is a hero to his wife, a stranger to his children, a fine boy to his mother, an easy touch to the "down and outers," a recipient of continual criticism, an expected example to the flock and a name on many mailing lists.

To some he is a fuddy-duddy; to some he is a stuffed-shirt; to some he is a guy who has nothing to do but prepare a couple of 30-minute sermons each week; to some he is a person in whose presence certain things must not be practiced; to some, if he tries to get things done better, he's trying to run things; to some, if he works hard and does things that are left undone, he's trying to get personal attention and glory.

To some he is a dear friend, a "Johnny on the spot". When death hovers near, he is the one that stays on after the doctor leaves. He is the one who at times can mend up a broken marriage, but cannot find time to mend his wife's broken toaster. He is the one who conducts the private Bible studies, marries the young lovers, prays with the sick and buries the dead. He is a missionary, promoter, public orator, errand boy, typist, file clerk, public relations director, business executive, counselor, bookworm, diplomat, human being, sinner scorcher, saint praiser, planner, pusher, and puller, often while on the road between appointments with a cell phone in his ear.

His hours run about 12 per day, seven days per week. So when one of the "40 hour-a-week," (vacation with pay) brethren says, "Boy, if you had to work like we do..." ...he just swallows a couple of times and soliloquizes, "wouldn't that be nice?" So be patient with your preacher. Remember, he doesn't have a preacher to go to with his problems.
