Woodstock Church of Christ

WEEKLY

Vol. 24 No. 4 January 24, 2016

Welcome to the Lord's church that meets at Woodstock, Georgia. We find our authority in the inspired word of God and are governed in organization, faith, worship, and work according to God's Holy Word.

GREATER LOVE HAS NO ONE THAN THIS

Jesus is the finest example of a true Christian friend. His love for us is sacrificial, never selfish. He demonstrated it fully through the humble service of washing the disciples' feet, and then ultimately, when he laid down His life on the cross.

If we choose our friends based only on what they have to offer, we'll rarely discover the blessings of a genuine friendship. Philippians 2:3 says, "Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility consider others better than yourselves." By valuing your friend's needs above your own, you'll be on your way to loving like Jesus. In the process, you'll likely gain a true friend.

*A friend loves at all times,
And a brother is born for adversity (Proverbs 17:17).*

We discover the best of friendships with brothers and sisters who know and accept our weaknesses and imperfections. If we're easily offended or hold on to the past we'll have a hard time making friends. No one is perfect. We all make mistakes now and then. If we take a truthful look at ourselves, we'll admit that we bear some of the blame when things go wrong in a friendship. A good friend is quick to ask for forgiveness and ready to be forgiving.

*A man who has friends must himself be friendly,
But there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother (Proverbs 18:24).*

This proverb reveals that a true Christian friend is trustworthy indeed, but emphasizes a second important truth as well. We should only expect to share complete trust with a few loyal friends. Trusting too easily can lead to ruin, so be careful about putting your confidence in a mere companion. Over time our true Christian friends will prove their trustworthiness by sticking closer than a brother or sister.

-Matt
