Woodstock church of Christ

WEEKLY

Vol. 18 No. 5 January 31, 2010

Welcome to the Lord's church that meets at Woodstock, Georgia. We find our authority in the inspired word of God and are governed in organization, faith, worship and work according to God's Holy Word.

A Note From Bryan. . . Developing a Better Body

Developing a better body is a goal that many people share. We all want to have a strong, healthy body. We put ourselves through the wringer of exercise and the discipline of restricted diet. We struggle to lose weight and increase our strength and lung capacity because we want to live with verve. By this time of year our New Year's resolutions to get fit may be on the wane. If your resolve was to get fit and eat healthy then I want to encourage you to strengthen that resolve. God made our bodies and we ought to be good stewards of our bodies which includes keeping them healthy and strong according to our varied ability.

In 1 Timothy 4:7-8 Paul encouraged Timothy, "...exercise yourself toward godliness. For bodily exercise profits a little, but godliness is profitable for all things, having promise of the life that now is and of that which is to come." There are some limited benefits to healthy living; limited to this physical lifetime. There is something greater and that is exercise toward godliness which lasts beyond this life.

Today is both a challenge and an opportunity set before you to exercise yourself toward godliness. This is our annual Day of Prayer, Planning, and Involvement. The leadership of this congregation has set before you a challenge and an opportunity to be involved and serve God. We all want a greater fellowship. We want the worship to be more uplifting. We want to connect with people of like-precious faith and we want God to be pleased with us as individuals.

Please take the time to visit the displays that are set up. Consider these areas of ministry and find one that you can plug into and be of service. This is not just an opportunity for you to be a spiritual volunteer. This is a chance to grow and stretch beyond where you are now in the spiritual dimension of your life.
