Mission Update

Nathan Reynolds

Nathan Reynolds, Youth Minister at the Augusta church of Christ, will be moving to a new congregation in Pittsburgh. This new congregation will be able to provide Nathan with full time support. As a result, our Mission support for him ($1,200 per month) will end in March. Please continue to pray for Nathan and his family as they move to a new work.

Mission Update

Bill Thomas

Bill Thomas, preacher at Pisgah church of Christ, has lost $250 of monthly support effective January 1. He has been able to find $100 in monthly support from a congregation in Alabama. Our Mission Committee has decided to increase our support by an additional $150 per month (for a total of $450 per month). We will continue this additional support for the remainder of this fiscal year, and will decide on continued additional support for next year, as part of our budgeting process. Please continue to pray for Bill and his work at Pisgah.

A Note From Bryan... Take Care of Yourselves

Take Care of Yourselves is the advice Paul gave to the Ephesian elders in Acts 20:17-38. It is advice that should be taken by all those who shepherd God's people. As members of the congregation we should not put more expectation upon our shepherds than what the Bible places upon them. It is imperative that they maintain all the important dimensions of human life.

1. Take care of your Physical bodies.
  - a. Take advantage of advanced medicine of our day and time.
    - i. Physical health is a blessing God gives to us.
    - ii. Keep yourself in good shape.
  - b. Manage your time.
    - i. Set healthy boundaries.
    - ii. Budget your time.
  - c. Control stress.
    - i. Keep worries in check, Matthew 6:34.
    - ii. "Family" stress
    - iii. Moses' example Exodus 18:13-27
2. Take care of your family.
  - a. Can't be everywhere all the time.
  - b. Spiritual discipline of simplicity
3. Take care of your spiritual life.
  - a. Pastors and teachers.
    - i. Be ready to share the good news., 1 Peter 3:15.
    - ii. Be able to equip, Hebrews 5:14.
  - b. Personal study habits.
  - c. Elders studying together.
    - i. Current issues.
    - ii. Issues affecting the local body.
    - iii. Faith challenges.
    - iv. Bereans, Acts 17:11

Conclusion: To be the best Shepherd you can be you have to be the best YOU.
