Woodstock church of Christ

WEEKLY

Vol. 21 No. 19

May 12, 2013

Welcome to the Lord's church that meets at Woodstock, Georgia. We find our authority in the inspired word of God and are governed in organization, faith, worship and work according to God's Holy Word.

FORGIVING SELF

It is clear in many passages of Scripture that God desires that we not be a fault-seeking, grudge-holding, got-to-be-be-my-way sort of person, but, rather He tells us to be a kind, forgiving people (Matthew 6:14; Ephesians 4:32, et al). It seems conclusive that most Christians are the kind, forgiving people God wants all to be as relates to other people, but sometimes find it difficult to be kind and forgiving toward self, perhaps because of what they perceive as some "terrible" sin in their past. What sins could one classify as greater or more significant than those committed by King David? And yet, God could and did look upon David's heart and say 'He's a man after my own heart' (1 Samuel 16:7). Though he sinned by committing adultery and murder, none can deny the penitence, piousness, humility, and devotion to God of this great king of Israel. God never implied that David was not going to sin. He was a sinner, as we are! And, as David, when we are willing to confess and repent of our sins, we can know, without doubt, "the Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die" (2 Samuel 12:13). In spite of our weaknesses and failures, if we develop and exhibit the godly characteristics of this great king, we, too, as penitent sinners, no matter our perception of past sins, can trust God (1 John 1:9) and become and know that we, indeed, are men and women after God's own heart!

-Matt
