Additional Elders

The Woodstock Church of Christ is in the process of selecting additional elders. Please study 1 Tim 3:1-7, Titus 1:6-9 & 1 Pet. 5:2-5. Based on that study and prayerful consideration, make your suggestion of men to be considered as a shepherd of our congregation by completing a blue card and giving it to one of our elders.

Muscle and a Shovel

The latest shipment of the book, Muscle and a Shovel, has arrived. Pick up your copy(ies) from Kathy in room 205 today. Cost is $13 per copy, make checks to Woodstock Church of Christ.

Help Needed

Doug & Bobbie Fish are looking for a part-time caregiver for Bobbie, about 15-20 hours a week. If you or someone you know is interested, contact Doug.

I want to thank everyone for all the cards and prayers on my behalf. It really makes a difference knowing others are praying for you. I love my Woodstock family so much!

Cathie Putnam

Woodstock Church of Christ

WEEKLY

Vol. 22 No. 20

May 18, 2014

Welcome to the Lord's church that meets at Woodstock, Georgia. We find our authority in the inspired word of God and are governed in organization, faith, worship and work according to God's Holy Word.

Interesting Excerpt from the 2012 Southern Baptist Convention

Jimmy Scroggins, chairman of the SBC Committee on Resolutions, told the convention that the committee brought a resolution to the floor because of recent challenges to the emphasis on the Sinner's Prayer—usually a prayer of repentance to “invite Jesus into your heart” that has become a hallmark of evangelical conversionism.

The committee wanted “to affirm our commitment to evangelism and to calling people to make a decision for Jesus Christ,” Scroggins said.

“We affirm that repentance and faith involve a crying out for mercy and a calling on the Lord (Rom. 10:13), often identified as a ‘Sinner's Prayer,’ as a biblical expression of repentance and faith,” the resolution said. But it added, “A ‘Sinner's Prayer’ is not an incantation that results in salvation merely by its recitation and should never be manipulatively employed or utilized apart from a clear articulation of the gospel (Matt. 6:7; 15:7-9).”

The resolution was originally presented by Eric Hankins, pastor of First Baptist Church in Oxford, Mississippi, though the version approved by the committee omitted language designed to refute the denomination's increasingly Calvinist membership. (An effort to put much of the language back in was defeated in a floor vote, as was an effort to remove references to the phrase “Sinner's Prayer.”)

Indeed, Hankins says his resolution was sparked by a talk from one of the SBC's Calvinist stars, David Platt. Speaking at the Verge church leaders' conference March 1, the pastor of the Church at Brook Hills in Birmingham, Alabama, said the emphasis on the Sinner's Prayer is unbiblical and damning.

“I'm convinced that many people in our churches are simply missing the life of Christ, and a lot of it has to do with what we've sold them as the gospel, i.e. pray this prayer, accept Jesus into your heart, invite Christ into your life,” Platt said. “Should it not concern us that there is no such superstitious prayer in the New Testament? Should it not concern us that the Bible never uses the phrase, ‘accept Jesus into your heart’ or ‘invite Christ into your life’? It's not the gospel we see being preached, it's modern evangelism built on sinking sand. And it runs the risk of disillusioning millions of souls.”

Matt
