Woodstock church of Christ

WEEKLY

Vol. 16 No. 21

May 25, 2008

Welcome to the Lord's church that meets at Woodstock, Georgia. We find our authority in the inspired word of God and are governed in organization, faith, worship and work according to God's Holy Word.

A Note From Bryan... What Now?

It can be rather frightening to listen to the speculation going on right now about where things are headed in our nation. Some of you remember times like these before and maybe it isn't a big deal to you except for the higher prices you are paying for gas and groceries as well as many other goods and services that have found it a convenient time to raise their prices. For many others this has been the most significant and possibly frightening challenge of their lives.

Besides inflation there is the election and the reported lack of confidence in government along with a rekindled desire for big government. Wherever you stand on the political landscape these are challenging times. One question that seems to be on the minds of many even if it is unspoken is, "what are we going to do if..." What is going to happen to our home economies and the national economy if gas above $5 per gallon? What will we do if we have to make serious choices between fuel and food?

There are those who are making rather cavalier speculations about what could or might happen. There are those who are quite confident that we will adjust and get used to the pain at the pump. There are those who believe we will just make the proper conservation steps and lifestyle changes therefore we will both drive and eat less. However, there are those who are already having to make very difficult choices about their lives.

People are losing their homes, their jobs, or both. There are those who are already cutting their lifestyle back dramatically just to bring home the necessities. Needless to say there are a great many people who are frustrated and even scared. The question for many is, what do we do now? This morning I hope to at least partially answer that question with Scripture.

Today's Sermon Topics
AM: What Now?	Proverbs 14:34
PM: Proper & Biblical Understanding of the "Heart"	Proverbs 4:23

Thanks!

Thanks to all who helped make our workday a success. With more than 30 workers we accomplished a lot. Remember that there are always little things to do. See Stan Dmytrowitz for guidance.
