Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
Thank you so much for all the love, cards, flowers, and prayers during Larkin's Aunt Beverly's surgery and his Grandmother's illness and passing. We also want to say thank you for the cards that were sent to Larkin's Grandmother. She thoroughly enjoyed them and knew she was loved.
In Christ,
Larkin and Hope Cook

To My Church Family,
I want to say thank you for all the prayers, flowers, cards, and food that you all sent during mom's illness and passing and of course all the visits. I am so blessed to have such a loving and caring family at Woodstock Church of Christ.

Woodstock Church of Christ Weekly Bulletin

Welcome to the Lord's church that meets at Woodstock, Georgia. We find our authority in the inspired word of God and are governed in organization, faith, worship, and work according to God's Holy Word.

Vol. 25 No. 22 FAITHFUL THROUGH DEATH May 28, 2017

What can we do to stay faithful to our God who loves us so generously and completely?

First, we can certainly determine to be informed as Jude urges us ... "remember the words which were spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ" (verse 17). When you see those who cause division in the body or arrogantly set themselves up above the Word of God, be on guard. Don't be taken in by smooth talk or strange doctrines. Don't accept anything as a substitute, but test everything by the Word of God.

Second, take steps to insulate yourself against unbelief. "Build yourself up in your most holy faith." (Jude, Verse 20). Devote the time it takes to develop intimacy with God's Word. Books and sermons are important, but they cannot fully take the place of private and personal Bible study.

Third, be continual in prayer. Do not allow anything, not even good things like family or secular interests, to take the place of time with God. If you neglect Him, you will find yourself spiritually deprived and will lose your salvation and certainly you will miss out on some of God's blessings. When the prodigal son wandered away from his father, he did not lose his father's love, but he suffered. He missed out on the many blessings of living closely and intimately with his father. The prodigal forfeited the joy of daily experiencing his father's love. When you spend time away from the Father, what effects does that have on you, your emotions, or your choices?

Fourth, insulate yourself from those who once knew and practiced truth but have turned their backs on it (1 Corinthians 5:12-13). However, Jude does say in verse 22 to get involved with non-believers. "Be merciful to those who doubt." Do not angrily teach the truth, but show them the same mercy and love Christ did. Prayerfully speak the truth in love.

Is your heart often moved by the many unsaved in the world around you? Are you involved?

Jude's epistle ends with the best part, God's part, in keeping us safe. Verses 24-25 offer an uplifting description of what God stands ready to do for the faithful: "To him who is able to keep you from falling and to present you before his glorious presence without fault and with great joy — to the only God our Savior be glory, majesty, power and authority, through Jesus Christ our Lord, before all ages, now and forever more!"

Is anything worrying you today? Your finances, your health? Politics or breaking news? A relationship with a family member? A lost friend? Are your worries affecting your faithfulness? Don't allow it! Cast any and all cares on Him, for He cares for you (1 Peter 5:7). Just thank and praise Him for the promise He gives you for your future with Him in Heaven and for the protection and companionship that is yours now as you do your best to walk by faith and not by sight (II Corinthians 5:7).

-Matt
