Woodstock Church of Christ

WEEKLY

Vol. 23 No. 25

June 21, 2015

Welcome to the Lord's church that meets at Woodstock, Georgia. We find our authority in the inspired word of God and are governed in organization, faith, worship and work according to God's Holy Word.

A GATHERING WITH NO ABSENTEES

There's a story that is told about a church in East Texas that supposedly had some producing oil wells on the church property. The wells were a lucrative source of income for that congregation. On the Sunday(s) the income from the wells was distributed among the members of the congregation there was always 100 percent attendance. The rule was that if a member was not present that day, he lost his part of the revenue.

Don't you know that even aunt Sally, whose "folks made her go to church when she was a child, and now doesn't have to go," was there on time? Don't you know that uncle Fred who has had arthritis so bad that he couldn't make it to worship for years, suddenly got much better? Don't you know that those who had to work found their way to services that day for a bigger payday? How about those folks who just had to go some place to visit a friend or relative? Would they have put that off if it happened to interfere with their presence at the service when money was doled out? You know they did!

Is the story fact or fiction? It doesn't matter! If it is true, it shows where people have their vested interests. If it is not, it surely teaches us a big lesson.

Christians who, through pure carelessness or indifference, miss the worship (A.M. or P.M.) with the saints, lose something of far greater value than money! They begin a course of carelessness that will endanger their souls and the souls of others that they influence; like their families. A local church also loses. "What will a man give in exchange for his soul?" Elders are to be obeyed in matters of option, for example, when and what time we will meet. When they decide that the congregation will meet at certain times that opinion is bound on every member. Failure to comply with that opinion, unless truly providentially hindered, is to violate Hebrews 13:17 which according to I John 3:4 results in sin!

The elders won't be giving out dividends in cash for attendance, but they will always provide the opportunity for sincere worshipers to show their love and adoration of God. Hope to see you tonight at 6:00 and at all services!

-Matt
