Vol. 24 No. 26

THE CONTEXT OF LIFE

June 26, 2016

Following is a reported, insightful statement from an Atheist. Do you agree?

"If I firmly believed, as millions say they do, that the knowledge and practice of Christianity in this life influences eternal life in another world, Christianity would be to me everything.

"I would study and learn of it daily.

"I would cast aside earthly cares as follies and earthly thoughts and feelings as vanity.

"Christianity would be my first waking thought and my last image before sleep sank me into unconsciousness.

"I would labor in its cause alone.

"I would take thought for my life in view of eternity alone.

"Earthly consequences and pursuits would never stay my hands or seal my lips.

"I would esteem one soul gained for heaven worth a lifetime of effort.

"I would go diligently to the world and teach Christ.

"I would pursue Christianity passionately and not practice it passively.

"My text would truly be: 'What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?'"

Do we realize what life is about and the real worth of our own souls as well as the souls of others? Do we understand the enormous significance of saved and lost souls? If we did, what would the context of our lives be?

-Matt Amos
