Privileged to Serve

Woodstock church of Christ

W E E K L Y

Vol. 16 No. 26

June 29, 2008

Welcome to the Lord's church that meets at Woodstock, Georgia. We find our authority in the inspired word of God and are governed in organization, faith, worship and work according to God's Holy Word.

A Note From Bryan...

Conquering fear...

What is it that strikes fear in your heart? You may not want to reveal it because it makes you feel too weak or vulnerable, but everyone is afraid of something. You may be afraid of having to give a speech or a public presentation of some kind. Many people are terribly afraid of speaking in public. The things that scare you may be much deeper than this. It is common for people to be afraid of being left alone. Death is also a universal fear among people.

Christians have some fears that are even deeper and more significant. Christians are afraid of what might happen after death, more than death itself. It is many a Christian that is unprepared for, and fearful of, a harsh verdict on the Day of Judgment. I find that Christians are afraid of making irrevocable mistakes in sharing the gospel. Christians are often afraid of offending a friend with the truth and, thereby losing the friendship. You may fear an emotional reaction from a neighbor, so you don't talk to them about their soul. I apologize if you think I paint with too broad a brush, but we are all afraid of something spiritually significant.

Today we are going to look at overcoming our fears using Jesus words to His disciples in Matthew 14:22-33. From this passage come three great fears, and Jesus spoke words of comfort and encouragement in each instance. Jesus addressed the fear of being alone, the fear of the unknown, and the fear of trying something you have never tried before. What really stands out from this passage is the disappointment expressed by Jesus because of doubts caused by our fears. I hope you will find Christ's words to be a source of strength and encouragement as you seek to overcome your fears and develop a stronger, deeper faith.

Today's Sermon Topics
AM: Conquering Fear	Matthew 14:22-33
PM: Preaching and Preparation	Romans 10:13-17

Visitors' Luncheon

We welcome all visitors to our services today.

We are thankful for your presence. Our visitors are invited to join us for lunch in the Fellowship Hall immediately after services. The luncheon will be provided today by Care Zones 1.2 & 2.3 (Aguirre & Mason). Next week we will not provide a luncheon since it is a holiday weekend.

Guest Speaker Tonight, June 29

David Decker, State Director of Georgia School of Preaching, will be our guest preacher at worship services this evening.

Monday Night for the Master Mondays at 7 pm

We encourage you to get involved with this area of ministry. If you can't commit to participate every Monday night, come as often as you can. Visitation, card ministry, and work in our building and food pantry are all in need of more workers! See Paul Dotson for more information about this work.

Pakistan Mission Project Tuesday July 1, 6 pm

Ladies and young girls, please plan to join us in the fellowship hall on Tuesday night to work on crafts to send to Pakistan. Check the WINGS bulletin board for information on what we will be working on and what to bring.

Lost and Found

The Lost and Found box is located in the left entrance of the auditorium near the Deacons' mailboxes. Please retrieve your possessions before they are donated to a worthy cause!

Recycle

Please don't discard the empty inkjet cartridges. Put them in the green box located in the area of the deacons' mailboxes. We are paid a small amount for each cartridge. The money we earn helps to offset our printing costs.

WINGS Newsletter

The summer issue is now available on the credenza in the foyer. Get yours today!
