Woodstock Church of Christ

WEEKLY

Vol. 22 No. 44

November 2, 2014

Welcome to the Lord's church that meets at Woodstock, Georgia. We find our authority in the inspired word of God and are governed in organization, faith, worship and work according to God's Holy Word.

WHAT A DAY!

This Sunday, November 2, 2014 will forever be a significant and joyous event in the history of the Woodstock Church of Christ that meets and worships at 219 Rope Mill Road, Woodstock, Ga. This congregation of believers first met to worship on May 2, 1976. Since that time many positive changes in lives, attendance numbers, and facilities have taken place. In 2001, Iglesia de Cristo was established adjacent to the present structure as the first Hispanic congregation in Woodstock and was seen as a part of the mission work of the Woodstock church. Rafael Uzcategui, a native of Venezuela, began his work at that time as her Spanish minister. Since then, both congregations (Spanish and Anglo) have been fully and totally united in doctrine, in mind, and in will, working together for the cause of Christ, but yet, each being independent and autonomous, were, nonetheless separated physically by language and culture. Effective this day, these two groups that have loved each other in the past separation will join together, because of that love and our common faith, to work and worship as a single unit of dedicated believers! This day of modern electronics and our deep desire to be united with those of like precious faith assures a common worship in spirit and in truth as we unite together! All is now in place for this momentous and highly significant goal to be reached and realized under the New Testament that enjoins unity of peoples and purposes and we have, with His help, made ready for a day we shall never forget! Presently our family is growing in Christ in many ways and it is our fervent desire that others seeking a family (Hispanics, Anglos, and all others) will come and feel the love, caring, and spirituality that exists and thrives at 219 Rope Mill Road! This is a day that the Lord has made; let us be glad and rejoice in it! Thanks for being here and sharing this day with us!

-Matt
