Woodstock church of Christ

WEEKLY

Vol. 16 No. 45

November 9, 2008

Welcome to the Lord's church that meets at Woodstock, Georgia. We find our authority in the inspired word of God and are governed in organization, faith, worship and work according to God's Holy Word.

A Note From Bryan... The Peacemakers

Telemachus was a monk who lived in the 4th century. He went to Rome and found chaos in the streets. The commotion was over the gladiators. He was amazed that four centuries after Christ had come people were still killing each other for sport. When he arrived at the coliseum the gladiators were shouting, "Hail Caesar, we will die for Caesar." He jumped over the railing and went out into the middle of the field, got between two gladiators, held up his hands and said, "In the name of Christ, forbear." The crowd protested and began to shout, "Run him through, Run him through." A gladiator came over and hit him in the stomach with the back of his sword. It sent him sprawling in the sand. He got up and ran back and again said, "In the name of Christ, forbear." The crowd continued to chant, "Run him through." One gladiator came over and plunged his sword through the little monk's stomach and he fell into the sand, which began to turn crimson with his blood. One last time he gasped out, "In the name of Christ, forbear." A hush came over the 80,000 people in the coliseum. Soon a man stood and left, then another and more, and within minutes all 80,000 had emptied out of the arena. It was the last known gladiatorial contest in the history of Rome.

What does it take for there to be peace? It takes sacrifice. It takes humility. It takes someone who will do what is right regardless of the cost.

Consider all the sources of conflict in life: There are wars over land and property. There are divorces over "irreconcilable differences." Sometimes relationships become strained by pride. And most of all, there is the conflict between God and ourselves because of our own foolishness and sin.

What motivates us to peace? A man standing in the middle of the conflict. A man who loves us so much that he will not allow us to continue in our sin and death. A man who himself is willing to give his life to save our own. A man who will help us to see what we are doing to ourselves and to others. A man who took a sword and cried, "Father, forgive!"

God has called us to peace. He has called us to peace through the death of His own Son. Jesus is the Prince of Peace. Praise God for His love and compassion in the midst of our foolishness.

"Blessed are the peacemakers, For they shall be called sons of God." - Matthew 5:9

Visitors' Luncheon

We welcome all visitors to our services today.

We are thankful for your presence. Our visitors are invited to join us for lunch in the Fellowship Hall immediately after services. The luncheon will be provided today by Care Zones 2.3 & 3 (Mason & Crawford) and next week by Care Zones 1.2 & 4 (Aguirre & Druzba).

Tuesday, Nov. 11, 7:30 pm

Everyone is encouraged to meet in the foyer of the Woodstock Nursing Home on Arnold Mill Road on Tuesday evening at 7:30 pm to sing hymns for the residents.

Youth Group Progressive Dinner Saturday, November 15

Teens are invited to a progressive dinner, spread out over 4 homes. At the last home, enjoy a devo and songs of praise to our Lord before returning to the building. Meet at the building at 5 pm. Please sign up on the youth board today or see Eric or Christine Aguirre. We need an accurate count to provide enough food and transportation for everyone.

Check the board for several upcoming events.

Mother & Baby

A mother and baby privacy room is now available in the back of the auditorium.

ESL International Dinner Monday, Nov. 17, 7 pm

Everyone is invited to join the ESL students and staff for an International Dinner. Please bring food for a covered dish dinner and come to encourage the students who have attended ESL classes this semester. ESL classes will resume in January.

Georgia AGAPE Mission Special Contribution Sunday, November 23

Our Special Contribution to help Georgia children is only 2 weeks away. Make your checks to Georgia AGAPE or place cash in an envelope marked AGAPE. Our mission fund will match every dollar contributed. For more details on the AGAPE work, please visit www.GeorgiaAGAPE.org.

Annual Thanksgiving Dinner Thursday, November 27

Please volunteer to help with this annual event for senior citizens in our area who do not have family to share the holiday. Members of the congregation are welcome to attend as well. Sign up on the bulletin board to help with food and transportation.

Super Seniors

The Super Seniors will not have a regular meeting in November. Instead, we encourage all Seniors to participate in the Thanksgiving Dinner for our community senior citizens.

Help a Child with Christmas

Please take a tag from the bulletin board in the foyer, purchase the gift following instructions on the tag, return items to room 206 by Nov. 30. This project is part of our benevolence work.

Clothing Closet News

We have a great need for coats and winter clothing. Please drop them off at the Clothing Closet, located on the lower level.

Living Wall Pictures Being Updated

If your family picture on our living wall is out-dated due to growth or addition of children, or new hairstyle, or for whatever reason, see Barry Payne. He will take a new picture of your family.

Library News

The Archeological Study Bible that was purchased in memory of Doris Quackenbush has been missing for some time from the Library. This book has not been entered into the Library for check out, so please see if you have it at home. Please return books to the church library as soon as you have finished reading them.

Pantry Items of the Week Flour & Sugar

Congratulations

New Baby! Rick & Pam Reynolds have a new grandson, Noah, born on Nov. 2. His parents are Nathan & Kristi Reynolds, missionaries we sponsor in Augusta, ME.

John & Linda Campbell have a new grandson, Nathan, born on Nov. 3. Proud parents are Torre & Amy Walker.

New Baby Gift Card

Beth & Jeremy Wallace have a new son, Landon, born October 20. If you would like to contribute to a gift certificate to welcome this new baby, please see Jan Dmytrowitz or Heather Massey.

Congratulations!

We rejoice with the Hydrick family for the safe trip of Josh & Marcie to Vietnam to bring home their little girl, Maeley. If you would like to give her a gift, Guy & Loretta will be headed to Michigan Thanksgiving week. Leave your gift on the table in the foyer.
