Vol. 16 No. 47

Taking Action - Fulfilling Responsibilities

Georgia AGAPE's Thanksgiving Appeal - November 23

By Doug Mead, AGAPE Executive Director

In the first "National Treasure" movie, the character played by Nicolas Cage, Benjamin Gates, made a statement to his friend Riley about his interpretation of a line in the Declaration of Independence. He understood this to say, "When something goes wrong, those who have the ability to take action have the responsibility to take action." In many ways, this sentiment is reflective of scriptural principles and has much application to the work of AGAPE.

AGAPE is about stepping in to help children and families who are struggling in life. We are about providing important help and hope to precious lives. We do this work, in large part, to follow the admonitions in the scriptures to take action. Consider what the apostle Paul said in Galatians 6:10, "Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially those who belong to the family of believers."

Yes, there is a special motivation for what we do and why so many join with our efforts! We live in a great country which places much value on human life and which understands the responsibility we all have to reach out to help those in need.

This is the time of year when we ask for our friends to take greater action to join our efforts by financially giving to our work in our Thanksgiving Appeal. We all know that times are tight financially for many. The reality is that many of AGAPE donors will not be able to give as much as in years past. That is why we desperately need those who are doing well to give more this year. Hopefully, this will help us make up the difference.

Regardless of the ups and downs in the economy, our financial needs remain constant. We ask for your generosity as we provide much needed help to so many who depend on us.

Today's Sermon Topics

AM: Remember Lot's Wife	Psalm 8
PM: Meekness	Matthew 5:5

Visitors' Luncheon

We welcome all visitors to our services today.

We are thankful for your presence. Our visitors are invited to join us for lunch in the Fellowship Hall immediately after services. The luncheon will be provided today by 1.3 & 2.2 (Woodyard & Dmytrowitz). There will not be a luncheon next week due to the holiday weekend.

Georgia AGAPE Mission Special Contribution Today

Today is the annual Thanksgiving Appeal day for Georgia AGAPE. Today we join with churches all over Georgia to help make a difference in the lives of disadvantaged children. Taking care of needy and "homeless" children is a great calling of the church. Today, we make another statement about the tremendous compassion and generosity of Christians. Please make your checks to Georgia AGAPE, or if you have cash, place in an envelope marked AGAPE (available in the back of the auditorium). Our mission fund will match every dollar contributed. Let's do all we can to help this important ministry! Any questions, see Guy Hydrick, Rick Laukka or Johnny Mackey.
